CIANA is a not-for-profit social service agency serving newcomers to the United States. CIANA is planning to launch the Needle & Thread project which has been conceptualized to promote economic empowerment amongst South Asian women.

We would really appreciate your participation in completing a brief survey about your interest and suggestions for the Needle & Thread program design. This is a unique opportunity to have your voice heard and your opinions included in the structure of the program.

To learn more about the Needle & Thread program and to gain further information on how to complete the survey please contact Zara.
