

SART REACH-OUT: Helping Our Communities Respond to Sexual Violence

The Queens Sexual Assault Task Force is pleased to present SART REACH-OUT, a panel discussion about services at Elmhurst Hospital Center for victims of sexual assault.

Date: Thursday, November 10th

Time: 10:00 am

Place: Elmhurst Hospital Center

Auditorium, Rm. A-1-22

79-01 Broadway, Elmhurst, New York

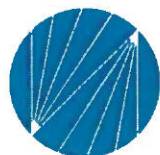

Refreshments provided at 9:30 a.m.

Panelists include:

- Dr. Sheree Givre, Medical Director, EHC SAFE Program
- Karina Loayza, Social Work Supervisor, EHC Emergency Department
- Alpana Patel, Coordinator, Sexual Assault Violence Intervention (SAVI) Program
- Glenda Guzman, Coordinator, Borough of Queens Sexual Assault Response Team
- Sgt. Grace-Marie O'Donnell, Commanding Officer, Special Victims Liaison Unit
- Marjory Fisher, Bureau Chief, Special Victims Bureau, District Attorney Queens County

A Q&A session will follow the panel. All are welcome, including groups working with recent immigrants, faith-based organizations, and social service agencies. For additional information visit nyc.gov/elmhursthospital or contact Rebecca Carman at (718) 334-2732.

Co-sponsored by NYC Councilmember Julissa Ferreras, the New York City Alliance Against Sexual Assault, and Elmhurst Hospital Center.

New York City Alliance
Against Sexual Assault

